

Feline Wellness Checklist

It's important to take your cat for twice-a-year wellness visits.

Your cat's name

Age

Behavior Assessment (Adapted from the AAFP Behavior Guidelines Report)

Does your cat urinate or defecate outside the box?

Yes      No

Does your cat show signs of aggression toward people, including hissing, biting or scratching?

Yes      No

Have there been any changes in your cat's behavior or disposition?
If so, over what time period?

Yes      No
_____ days/weeks/months

Does your cat have any fearful behaviors?

Yes      No

Listed below are a number of the infections and illnesses that affect cats. Some can be prevented with vaccinations and appropriate health care, while others can be managed with proper treatment. Your veterinarian can help you determine the appropriate protocol for your cat, based on its health, age and lifestyle.

Calicivirus (FCV)

Feline Immunodeficiency Virus (FIV)

Kidney Diseases

Chlamydiosis

Feline Leukemia Virus (FeLV)

Rhinotracheitis (FVR)

Osteoarthritis

Hyperthyroidism

Gastrointestinal Parasites

Dental Diseases

Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD)

Heart Diseases

Diabetes Mellitus

Lower Urinary Tract Diseases (LUTD)

Toxoplasmosis

Feline Bordetellosis

Panleukopenia

Feline Infectious Peritonitis (FIP)

Rabies

Adult cats (1 to 6 years)

Senior cats (7+ years)

Immunizations

Blood panel (CBC)

Osteoarthritis check

Parasite check

Chemistry panel

Renal disease screen

Heartworm check

Urinalysis

Thyroid check

Dental health

Flea control

Blood pressure check

Recommendations based on today's assessment

C0597M

www.healthycatsforlife.com

